TWO OLD GITS REPORT OF HASH SUNDAY 19 FEB 2017

The Hares for today are 2 virgin trail layers Sloppy Tits and Hot Lips aided by the veteran Bianca. So, an all girlies' run. It's a big field the sun is shining and we're all champing at the bit. Down downs first for Shitzu and Lonely Ranger for birthdays.

Turn right out of the pub and right again down the road towards the Visitors Centre. It feels more like a kennel club outing than a hash with dogs everywhere a crapping here and a crapping there. The main long gone and the mini spreading out; Sloppy Tits is at the back making sure the old gits don't get lost. Plenty of dust and chalk arrows. Lovely terrain no shiggy no stiles and it's a lovely stroll. Blonde female ahead which Greek God thinks is Sloppy Tits so he hollers a friendly greeting "oi sloppy tits! "Blonde" female turns around. Oh! dear not Sloppy Tits just a non-hasher. She's not amused and even less amused cos GG is laughing his head off.

Back to the pub and having picnic at the back of the car when K9 turns up. Where have you been the main got back an hour ago? He did get back an hour ago but because it was such a short main he went round again feeling exercise deprived . Now that's what you call a proper hasher. No whinging like all the other mainers.

A good effort by the hares for their first trail and thank you very much.
Down downs in the pub. Sloppy Tits gets a new hash title and is now Wrong Direction.
